

Support System for International Students

4. Consultation Counters/Counselors

The following facilities are also offering a consultation services to university students:

(1) Health Administration Center

The Health Administration Center gives students first-aid medical treatments for illnesses, injuries and consultation for physical and mental problems.

(2) Campus Life Helper

Each of faculty office, International Student Center, Educational Affairs Department Office or University Wide Education Office can give you all sorts of tips and support on solving problems and making good decisions.