President's Message

The National University Corporation Gifu University continues to be a place where people gather to grow, learn, explore, and contribute. These principles have been passed down to the present to underlie our existence and will also be passed on to the future. Based on these principles and targeting the year 2021 of Period III Mid-Term Objectives and Plan, Gifu University will become a core for regional revitalization and an international as well as national education and research hub in fields where the university has particular strengths and distinguishing characteristics. Included among such fields are the life sciences, environ-energy sciences, next-generation manufacturing, and medical education.

Gifu University is a mid-sized university with five faculties, four master's programs, one professional degree program, two doctoral programs, two united graduate schools and one joint graduate school. With the relocation of the school of medicine and university hospital in 2004, all faculties and schools are now located on a single campus. In addition, buildings and research facilities for fourth through sixth year students of Gifu Pharmaceutical University moved onto the same campus. In addition, the Gifu Disaster Mitigation Center opened in April 2015, and the Gifu Central Livestock Hygiene Service Center and the Museum of Infrastructure started their operations in 2017. The Innovation Hub for Smart Mold Processing was launched in 2018 and the Gifu Prefectural Research Institute for Food Sciences opened in April 2019. Furthermore, the Intelligent Production Technology Research & Development Center for Aerospace are moving forward. Such efforts will be made to further strengthen our functions, particularly those related to advanced education and research. Please refer to the Campus Map on page 44 and 45 to see where each facility is located. Being able to study at a single campus in the suburbs with abundant nature is an attractive feature of Gifu University.

On the other hand, we are fully aware that the university is in an urban area and a large number of students return to the city center every day. Many students and employees have pointed out that commuting to the university is inconvenient. (It takes about 30 minutes from Gifu Station even during off-peak hours.) We responded to this situation and requests by constructing a satellite campus near the station. We have leased the fourth floor of the east wing of Gifu Skywing 37, a two-wing 37-floor high-rise building located in front of JR Gifu Station, and established a new education section in October 2012. It is fully equipped with IT facilities. They are not only used by Gifu University, but shared by the 23 member schools of the Gifu Network University Consortium (universities, junior colleges, and technical colleges). This satellite is also open for general public seminars and corporate events if the purpose conforms to the aims of the campus. In fact, they have been extensively used, including on weekends. Furthermore, the Gifu University Satellite Campus Open Course Academic Club, which is given by professors emeritus of the university, was also launched in April 2016. This is a series of course for the general public that have a strong academic and cultural interests. It has already become a highly popular open lecture among citizens today.

What direction is Gifu University moving on? The various faculties and teaching staff have continually worked hard to make the university a place where people learn and grow and where human resources with high levels of professional expertise are developed. Recently, we have had major success in becoming a national model through various activities ranging from local community work, to international efforts. These have included becoming a Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology's Center for Community (COC), creating advanced type COC+ projects, both of which have attained the highest evaluation of "S" for Gifu University, and further extensive COC+II projects, forming an agricultural science consortium consisting of 16 universities in South Asia (IC-GU12: International Consortium of Universities in South and Southeast Asia for the Doctoral Education in Agricultural Science and Biotechnology), and creating an international engineering network of 44 universities. The university also offers various courses including a "Program to Develop Human Resources with Expertise in Dies," a "Maintenance Expert Fostering Program" for maintenance and operation of infrastructure, a "Professional Degree Program" for highly-professional personnel in school administration, an Emergency Medical Network Development Program, and an International Studies in Liberal Arts. We consider that our duty is to further raise Gifu University's presence not only in Central Japan areas, but also throughout Japan and overseas and to win even greater praise from students, their guardians, local residents and taxpayers through these efforts.

While we take great pride in this work, we fully understand the importance of continually examining whether our education and research activities meet the needs of not only the local community and Japan, but also the international community. Among these various efforts, the global expansion of the university is of particular importance. We will continue to increase exchanges between universities to make it possible to accept more than the 400 international students who are studying at the university now. Additionally, our goals are to ascertain the various needs (problems faced) in regions where Gifu University students study, to conduct research and study and develop solutions to these problems, and in this way to truly make contributions overseas. To this end, we started the four Joint Degree Programs for Master's and Doctoral Degree with overseas universities in 2019. As this new initiative is manifesting itself, we firmly believe that it is important to undertake internationalization rooted in local communities and provide "glocal" services that provide local communities in Japan and overseas with the benefits from those efforts. We use the same approach for other activities that contribute to local communities in Japan and consider this the essence of our COC, COC+ and COC+II projects.

Governance provided by the university president and board members establishes a think tank function to help achieve our goals. It can be viewed as providing guidance and making proposals. We can foresee that glocalization of the university will occur as we strive to reach our goals with a carefully developed point of view. Let us all work together to move forward with these efforts.

At the end of my message, allow me to refer to a new framework that will bring two national universities under a single corporation. Gifu University will be integrated with Nagoya University in April 2020 to form the Tokai National Higher Education and Research System, Gifu University. Under the new system, the two universities will jointly administer and manage operations as a single institution of higher education and research. Under the new name, Gifu University will facilitate consistent and steady development of the management and functions of the system with Nagoya University at every stage of the integration. Among others, general education, mathematical data science, life science and intelligent production technology research and development for aerospace are considered to play a pivotal role in realizing substantive integration in the years to come. We are bracing ourselves for taking up a new challenge to put this unprecedented initiative in the history of higher education to the path to success.

University Emblem

Designed by Mr. Hanichi Sakai, Former Professor of Gifu University

-Gifu University's emblem signifies a boat traditionally used for cormorant fishing and the fire kindled on it to attract fish. The fire represents learning, while the boat represents human happiness.

-The light and dark splashes the Earth and the natural world. They represent all existence and activity, harmony and balance.

-The combination of black and orange signifies passion. It also represents rich and dignified sensibilities.

-The simplified shape signifies the cleanliness and dynamic character of contemporary life. It also represents the speed and intellectual tenor of our times.

University Symbol

Designed by Mr. Hiromi Miyagawa

In 2009, to mark the 60th anniversary of the University's founding, the University solicited design proposals nationwide and chose this symbol from among the proposals. The design embodies our hope that the rich educational and research activities being carried out in Gifu will be known throughout Japan and to the world, and that the students of Gifu University will advance on a sure path—like an arrow—toward their respective futures. The emblem incorporates a powerful bow, forming the letter G for "Gifu."

Ideals

Blessed with abundant nature and referred to as the country of seiryu (clear water), for historical and geographical reasons, the Gifu region has developed and passed down a diverse culture and technology that brought eastern and western cultures together. Having inherited these attributes from the Gifu region, Gifu University trains students, who will later actively participate in society. We provide a place where students learn, explore, and contribute in an environment conducive to exploration and growth. The university has adopted the principle that it is an integral part of a local community, serving as an institution that learns, explores, and contributes.

Applying the distinguishing feature of having all undergraduate and graduate programs located on a single campus for educational and research activities, Gifu University provides an education focused on training highly skilled professionals. We are committed to conducting high-quality research that is the foundation of that education and to achieving internationalization rooted in the local community. As a core hub for reinvigorating local communities, the university also plays a role in regional revitalization through such efforts as providing local communities with the benefits derived from the above activities.

Aims

1. Education

Gifu University promotes learning based on the students own efforts. It has reinforced its education quality verification system, trains highly skilled professionals, and undertakes community-based "Teach for Communities" activities. By introducing courses on design ideas in its science and technology Master's programs and stressing liberal arts-based general education, the university strongly promotes the training of students who support innovation. Other priorities include the development of medical education that meets international standards.

2. Research

Gifu University consistently engages in high-quality research activities, and this forms a foundation for the education it provides. As a key element in these efforts, the university aims to serve as an advanced research hub in its unique research fields in the life sciences, environmental studies, and manufacturing fields, and it relies on its particular strengths to provide society with the benefits obtained from its activities.

3. Internationalization

Gifu University undertakes not only internationalization rooted in the local community, but also glocalization by providing the benefits of internationalization to the local community. The university promotes various policies that lead to internationalization. These include creating a multicultural international liberal arts course, organizing and expanding programs that bring Japanese and international students together, and reinforcing support for international students gaining employment opportunities.

4. Social Contribution

Gifu University supports the local community by conducting local community-oriented education and research and promoting internationalization. In particular, for its COC (Center of Community) projects, the university is increasing the quantity and improving the quality of its efforts to promote regional revitalization by forming a COC consortium to expand collaboration with local governments, local enterprises, and other universities both in and outside the prefecture. The university is also further expanding its function as an advance medical hub within the local community. This effort is centered on the University Hospital and promoting efforts that contribute to the local community through collaboration with Gifu Prefecture.

We believe that supporting first-rate research and a passion for learning are essential components of high-quality education. To this end, the faculty, as both researchers and educators, must remain conscious at all times of the University's high standard of ethics, while pursuing original research on par with the world's best.

Charter of Philanthropy : How Gifu University responds to the expectations and needs of society

The image invoked by the word 'university' has traditionally been one of a lofty presence far removed from society, a so-called 'ivory tower.' However, since the move to incorporate national universities in Japan, they have become corporate entities upon which today's society places vast expectations. Universities have responded to these expectations by actively serving and giving back to society. As a regional university situated in the center of Japan, Gifu University is expected to respond to the broad expectations and demands of the regional community in areas of education, research, industry, medicine, culture and others, and contribute to the international community as well.

- Cultivate excellent human resources, as this is the greatest social contribution expected of the University.
- Cooperate and collaborate with the regional community, as this is one of the most important obligations of a regional university.
- Help breathe new life into regional industry through cooperation with industry and government.
- Contribute to the progress of regional education, culture, economy, and public administration through cooperation with the region's citizens and administrative authorities.
- The University Hospital is also expected to carry out its roles as a center of advanced medical treatment and of development of local medical care.
- Work with developing and developed nations for the resolution of international and social issues.
- Contribute to the international community through student exchange programs and other collaborations with overseas educational institutions.

Charter of Administration : What Gifu University requires of its administration

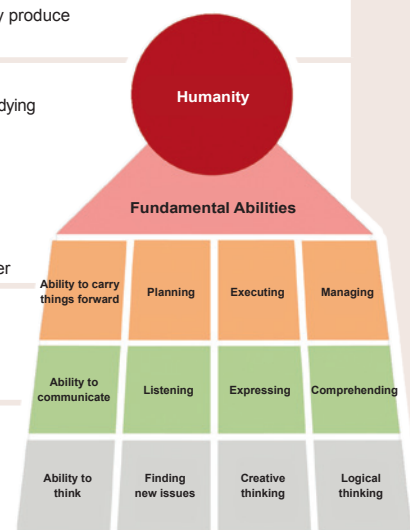

Society has high expectations for the University regarding education, research, and social contributions. In this regard, it is imperative that the University responds to these expectations by setting and achieving the Mid-Term Objectives, and making and implementing the Mid-Term Plan. The University aims to advance its original goals and to see that the University itself progresses as an organization with a unique structure and system of values. To do so, it is crucial that the staff and faculty share a common awareness of the issues concerned and engage in the administrative affairs of the University under the leadership of the President of the University. Given that necessity, it is essential that we focus on strategy and work to build a distinctive university. Given the unforgiving economic conditions that all national universities face, administration and management require the element of strategy in their operations if they hope to maintain the activities of the University and advance the education, research, and social contributions that are its essential responsibilities.

- Achieve the Mid-Term Objectives and execute the Mid-Term Plan.
- Emphasize the importance of strategizing, and carry out administration with clear objectives under the leadership of the University President.
- Conduct operations with a high priority placed on environmental issues. Concerns for these issues should be reflected in the University education, research, and social contributions.
- Operate under a clear management strategy in order to overcome harsh economic conditions.
- Be diligent in the acquisition of external funding and strengthen the University's economic base.
- Emphasize transparency and the public accessibility of information, and conduct management in a manner that is both efficient and logical.
- Hire first-rate people for the faculty and cultivate their talents.
- Use the University assets such as student educational data and educational research data of faculty for the promotion of quality education and research work.

■ University Hospital

The University Hospital provides highly advanced medical care as the sole university hospital and only special functioning hospital in Gifu Prefecture. It has also been designated as a specialized hospital for diseases that are difficult to treat, such as cancer, hepatitis, AIDS, etc. The Hospital places particular emphasis on advanced medical care for five categories of major disease (cancer, cardiac infarction, stroke, diabetes, and psychiatric illness) and on five medical services (emergency medical care, disaster medical care, rural and community medical care, perinatal care, and pediatric care) viewed as high priority by the Japanese government. In March 2018, the Hospital was additionally designated as a nuclear emergency core hospital, and an allergy disease core hospital in May 2018.

The Department of Human Cancer Genome and the Department for Children and Adolescents and Young Adults opened at the Hospital's Cancer Center in July 2018 for the purpose of seeking new cancer treatments through clinical and therapeutic trials, and giving support to patients and their families. The Hospital has also built an extensive network with other cancer hospitals and clinics within Gifu Prefecture, playing a significant role as a base for cancer treatment that offers specialized examinations and medications to patients (e.g. preservation of fertility functions for young patients, examinations for hereditary cancer, etc.).

The ultimate goals of the Hospital are to meet the needs of society and respond to ever-growing demands for better medical care from the public. With the safety and security of people and society as our utmost priority, the University Hospital remains committed to medical safety, acceleration of clinical research, global human resource development and providing advanced, quality medical treatment for all as the sole special functioning hospital in the region.

■ Animal Medical Center

The Animal Medical Center is the only facility dedicated to veterinary education, research, and treatment in the Chubu region. In response to the increasing need for veterinary practices in recent years and to provide advanced medical treatment that pet owners expect, a new clinical ward and Linac Center were built onto the Animal Medical Center in April 2010 as well as the MRI Ward in April 2012. The Center's new clinical ward has private consultation rooms, a positive pressure surgery room which can also be used for brain surgery, and an intensive-care unit. It is an advanced facility equipped with electronic medical charts and diagnostic imaging units. The Linac Center was the first of its kind at a Japanese national university to have a high-energy radiation LINAC (linear accelerator) treatment system, and the MRI Ward was likewise the first to have an MRI (magnetic resonance imaging) system. The Center's specialties are internal medicine, surgery, oncology, anesthesiology and neurology for companion animals, and farm animal medicine. In one year, about 8,200 cases are being treated at the departments of internal medicine, surgery, oncology, anesthesiology and neurology from referrals from private hospitals in the Tokai, Kinki and Hokuriku regions. At the same time, the department of farm animals plays an important role in the medical care of farm animals in Gifu area.

■ Collaboration Center for Medical Education

Medical Education Development Center (MEDC)

The Center was established in 2001 as a collaboration center for medical education to promote the development of human resources who can contribute to medical education and collaborative and joint research with medical education institutions both in Japan and overseas. Initially accredited in April 2010, the Center is the only collaboration center for medical education accredited by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology. The Center was reaccredited for another five years in April 2015. As one of its programs, the Center conducts a Medical Education Seminar and Workshop four times a year. This event has won high praise as a nation-wide program for Faculty Development. The Center also launched a program to educate leaders in medical education at medical schools and educational institutions for health professionals. MEDC fellows/associates certificates will be given to the graduates of this course.

The Tutorial Education Division is working to spread and improve small-group active problem-based learning (PBL). The Virtual Skill Division is striving to develop communication-based education and simulation-based education that makes use of simulated patients. Efforts are also focused on education of professionalism, outcome-based medical education, computer-supported education, portfolio assessment systems, international exchanges, medical English education, and doctoral (PhD) programs for medical education.

■ Organization for Promotion of Higher Education and Student Support

[Organization Chart]

ORPHESS/faculty matrix-type organization

A structure designed to seamlessly combine specialized education offered by undergraduate faculties with a core education that is overseen by ORPHESS

Applying the results of individual optimization to facilitate overall optimization

Application of results accumulated by faculties and other entities to the entire university from the standpoint of overall optimization

Reforming governance and transforming the organizational culture

Consensus-building through dialog and collaboration and the facilitation of reform

A well-organized educational environment

The University's single, integrated campus as a venue for daily dialog and collaboration

ORPHESS is also home to the Planning Office for Higher Education & Student Support, which handles responsibilities including offering advice and suggestions in response to inquiries from the Director-General of ORPHESS, evaluating and analyzing educational effectiveness, and planning and implementing the University's faculty development program. ORPHESS also includes seven Divisions—the Public Relations and Admission, Liberal Arts Education, Active-Learning Support, Student Support, Community-Education Collaboration, Teacher's License Acquisition Support, and Career-Formation Support (Career Center)—to facilitate planning and implementation. The English Center was established in 2018 to coordinate and promote English education at Gifu University.

The principal operational duties of ORPHESS are as follows:

- (1) Promoting and improving University-wide education
- (2) Planning and implementing general education
- (3) Planning and implementing student admissions, learning support, support for student life, career support, and support for other aspects of University life
- (4) Planning and implementing regional educational partnerships
- (5) Supporting teacher training course and promoting partnerships involving teacher education
- (6) Evaluating and analyzing educational effectiveness
- (7) Carrying out other duties as necessary in order to achieve the ORPHESS's goals

Gifu University strives to foster a carefully defined set of fundamental abilities in students through all educational activities, together with specialized skills on the part of each faculty and graduate school in accordance with its Diploma Policy, Curriculum Policy, and Admission Policy, which collectively govern all of the University's activities. To encourage each student to take a proactive approach to his or her education, we are committed to (1) enhancing structures that support learning from admission to graduation, as well as structures that support student life; (2) continually verifying that our undergraduate and graduate programs accord with our three aforementioned primary policies and striving to improve the University's structures; and (3) increasing the University's overall educational capabilities so as to more effectively maximize each faculty's potential. To achieve these goals, it is essential that we take a broad view of the entire University's educational activities when planning programs, working to improve each faculty and graduate school's educational activities, and implementing mechanisms to support student learning. The Organization for Promotion of Higher Education and Student Support (ORPHESS) is characterized by a commitment to bring faculties, graduate schools, and student staff together in dialog and collaboration in order to achieve the goals described above. ORPHESS was launched in December 2013 with staff members drawn from a variety of departments at the University.

■ Educational Reform Initiatives

In an effort to advance reform in the educational sector, the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology selects and supports initiatives of an exceptional and distinctive character pursued by universities in the competitive environment of higher education. Gifu University has actively applied for the government programs and received recognition from the government.

Center of Community Program for Local Revitalization (COC+) with the university as a regional base for knowledge

Year	Program	Responsible Body
2015 to 2019	Step Up in Gifu & Positive Effect on Gifu Collaborative Training of Local Community-Oriented Industry Leaders	Gifu University, Chubu Gakuin University, Chubu University, Nihon Fukushi University, Nagoya Gakuin University, Gifu Prefecture, Gifu Employers' Association, Juroku Bank Ltd., Ogaki Kyoritsu Bank Ltd., Mynavi Corporation

The objective of the program is to attract people, who play a central role in regional revitalization, to local communities by creating appealing workplaces for students and supporting efforts by universities to boldly undertake curriculum reforms necessary to train the human resources needed by local communities through collaboration between universities, local public entities and corporations.

Striving to become a university that is an integral part of the local communities, Gifu University is using the current COC program to move forward with efforts to train local community-oriented human resources who work to resolve issues faced by local communities and who can play an active role as local community leaders by making use of their specialization. However, there is a net population outflow from Gifu Prefecture, and this is particularly true for workers in their 20s, many of whom move to Aichi Prefecture for work, and there is a need to train human resources that understand the appeal of companies in Gifu and can contribute to revitalizing local industries by settling down in local communities.

Therefore, working with entities such as local governments and companies in Gifu and strengthening relationships with local industries, Gifu University promotes local employment and the return of jobs to the local area and contribute to local revitalization through several activities. The universities train students who meet the needs of local industries by offering a three-step education program (1. Listen and see, 2. Take on challenges, and 3. Play an active role). The efforts are centered on internships and common educational programs with not only universities in Gifu, but also the current COC program universities in Aichi. Gifu University also promotes job creation through several activities such as expanding programs using industry-government-academia joint research.

Life Sciences Area: Center for Highly Advanced Integration of Nano and Life Sciences (G-CHAIN) (Established in October 2016)

As an area in life sciences research, the Center seeks to catalyze new drug discovery and next-generation medicine through integrated work to develop biopolymers (sugars, nucleic acids, and proteins) and other organic molecules; understand the molecular basis of life phenomena involving biopolymers and their associated molecules; and apply medicine to the diagnosis and treatment of disease using new physiologically active molecules and highly functional molecules and molecular complexes.

[Research Domain] (Number of People) Domain of Biomolecule & Biomaterial Creation (12), Domain of Integrated Life Systems (6), Domain of Applied Medical Sciences (10) 28 people in total

Environmental Sciences Area: Gifu Renewable Energy System Research Center (Established in April, 2018)

To achieve Gifu Prefecture's next-generation energy vision, Gifu Renewable Energy System Research Center will perform R&D on innovative technologies to "create", "store", "transport" and "use" CO<sub>2</sub>-emission free energy from renewable energy, and introduce Japan's first "Local Production for Local Consumption Energy Systems in Hilly and Mountainous Areas (Regional Revitalization Gifu Model)" for practical applications in society at large in a collaborative effort involving industries, government and academia. For the realization of this "Gifu Model," the Center is pursuing individual breakthroughs for the technological challenges posed by renewable energy use, as well as the establishment of technologies to integrate energy systems that are capable of optimizing energy production, storage, distribution and consumption through the use of methodology of ICT/IoT/AI.

[Research Division] (Number of People) Energy Creation Field (36), Energy Carriers and Storage Field (13), Innovation Energy Venture Creation Field (15), Energy System Integration Field (12) 76 people in total

Processing Area: Center for Advanced and Smart Die Engineering Technology (G-CADET) (Established in April, 2018)

The Center for Advanced and Smart Die Engineering Technology is working to enhance the international competitive edge of Japanese manufacturing businesses in a range of industries by 1) further reinforcing Gifu University's already formidable research strengths in the fields of product engineering and manufacturing via AI and IoT, 2) the development of production technologies and highly-reliable design techniques as exemplified by, for example, smart die processing, 3) the development of 3D additive manufacturing, and 4) human resource development.

[Research Division] (Number of People) Data Analysis Research Division (10), Materials Processing Research Division (14), Design Technology Research Division (11), Additive Manufacturing Research Division (6), Human Resource Development Division (8), Regional Collaboration Division (4) 53 people in total

Processing Area: Gu Composites Center (Established in April, 2018)

As a material engineering and manufacturing research center, Gu Composites Center carries out a great variety of composite material research programs and projects, ranging from molecular aggregates to fiber and resin composites. The Center has established a pioneering, unique research organization that integrates material chemistry, biochemistry, mechanical engineering, and even medicine, to achieve production process of diversified products in small quantities through the concept of "Tailored Materials & Design." It enables the Center to develop lightweight parts for aircraft and automobiles as well as composite materials used in medical applications in the human body. As one of the three major composite material centers in Japan's Tokai Hokuriku region, the Center actively pursues collaboration with local industry and businesses to aid in their expansion into the world market.

Project Research Center

The Project Research Center consists of two centers which promote project research in the interdisciplinary field.

Regional Disaster Mitigation Research Center (Established in April 2015)

The major missions of the Center are the implementation of practical research programs and the development of human resources for disaster prevention and mitigation in cooperation with the Gifu Prefectural Government. The Center members will carry out research programs by taking the unique natural and social environment of each region into account. At the Center, government officials who have enough on-site experiences and the university professors with the most advanced knowledge of natural disasters and disaster prevention measures will cooperate to conduct research programs and implement their research findings for daily life. In addition, the Center will contribute to the community by comprehensively coping with a wide range of issues involving the safety and security of the citizens in Gifu, offering the research findings and providing information. Such issues include disasters caused by abnormal weather events, earthquakes, changes in environmental resources due to the degradation of ecosystems and biodiversity, and medical care during disasters.

[Research Division] (Number of People) Division of Environmental Monitoring (9), Division of Technology Development for Disaster Mitigation (15), Division of Disaster Medicine (12), Division of Social Development for Disaster Mitigation (10), Specially-Appointed Associate Professor (1) 47 people in total
