

Special measures for the examinees for AY 2024 enrollment from the areas of disasters by the Noto Peninsula Earthquake on January 1, 2024

First, we would like to extend our deep condolences to the victims of the Noto Peninsula Earthquake that occurred on January 1, 2024.

Gifu University has launched a consultation service for the examinees for AY 2024 enrollment, who were affected by the Noto Peninsula Earthquake on January 1, 2024 (for the school recommendation-type screening II, and the first and second dates of the General Selection Examination).

We are also planning to implement some entrance examination fees exemption measures for the examinees and will post its details on the university website upon finalization.

Examinees Eligible to Consultation Service:

Examinees who are the victims of the Noto Peninsula Earthquake on January 1, 2024, and who are from the areas of disasters designated by Disaster Relief Act, and fall into either one of the categories below:

1. Examinees who are not able to apply for the entrance examination application during the application period due to the damages caused by the Noto Peninsula Earthquake
2. Examinees who are not able to apply for the entrance examination application via the internet because of the disrupted communication infrastructure
3. Examinees who are not able to apply for the entrance examination application because their senior high schools were damaged and are not able to issue documents necessary for an entrance examination application and a graduation certificate for examinees
4. Examinees who are not able to obtain documents necessary for the entrance examination application such as graduation certificates, certificate of qualification certifying the academic level equivalent to the completion of senior high school

In addition to the examinees applicable from 1 to 4 above, our consultation service is provided for other examinees as long as the Noto Peninsula Earthquake is concerned.

Please contact the Admission Division, Student Affairs Department, Gifu University (Tel: 058-293-2156, 2157)

*Those who fall into the category 3. above, examinees who are not from the areas of disasters designated by Disaster Relief Act are also eligible to consultation service.
