Fund for Living Expenses Application Q & A

Q 1. Who are eligible to apply for the Fund?

Answer:

Those who can meet following all three conditions:

- (1) Gifu University students (full-time students) and research students
- (2) Students/research students who are living away from their family residence in time of application (May 11, 2020 through June 17, 2020).
- (3) Students/research students who are not receiving grant-type scholarships from Gifu University, public organizations such as governments and private organizations in time of application (May 11, 2020 through June 17, 2020).

“Gifu University Students” are defined as “full-time students studying as undergraduate students, or enrolled in master’s degree, doctoral degree or professional degree programs.” “Research Students” are defined as “undergraduate and graduate school research students with “student” visas.”

If there are any irregularities found in application and fund receiving processes, Gifu University requests students/research students to return the fund, and will take disciplinary measures in line with the Gifu University Student Disciplinary Rules and Regulations

Q2. Am I “living away from my family residence” if I live with my relatives, sisters or brothers?

Answer:

If you pay a monthly rent, you are “living away from your family residence.”

Q3. I am financially independent of my parents/guardians. Can I apply for the Fund?

Answer

You can apply for the Fund, but if you have your own family after marriage, etc., you are not able to apply.

Q4. I live away from my family residence, but have temporarily returned to my family residence due to the spread of COVID-19. Can I apply for the Fund?

Answer

Yes, you can apply for the Fund.

Q5. Specifically, what are grant-type scholarships from Gifu University, public organizations such as governments or private organizations?

Answer

Support from Gifu University includes Gifu University Scholarship for Students with Excellent Academic Performance, Gifu University 70th Anniversary Api Co., Ltd. Scholarship, etc.

Fund for Living Expenses Application Q & A

Support from public organizations such as governments includes support for government-financed international students, international students sent from foreign governments, recruitment by the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS), and support from the Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO).

Q6. Is it possible for me to apply for the Fund? I am a recipient-to-be of JASSO grant-type scholarships.

Answer

No, you are not able to apply for the Fund and access an application screen.

Q7. Is it possible for me to apply for the Fund? I am going to receive JASSO grant-type scholarships from April, 2020.

Answer

No, you are not able to apply for the Fund and access an application screen.

Q8. Is it possible for me to apply for the Fund? I am applying for JASSO grant-type scholarship.

Answer

If you are not eligible to receive JASSO grant-type scholarships in time of your application (from May 11, 2020 through June 17, 2020), you can apply for the Fund.

Q9. Is it possible for me to apply for the Fund? I am “receiving (or applying for)” JASSO loan-based scholarship.

Answer

Because you are not receiving “grant-type scholarship” payments, you can apply for the Fund.

Q10. Is it possible for me to apply for the Fund? I am receiving both loan-based and grant-type scholarships from private organizations.

Answer

No, you are not able to apply for the Fund.

Q11. When will the payment be made?

Answer

It will take around 18 days for the fund to be transferred to your registered bank account.

Q12. Which bank account will the Fund be transferred to?

Answer

The Fund is transferred to the bank account you have registered to Gifu University (the bank account used by Gifu University to pay travel expenses or remunerations for the services as TA, RA or SA). If you do not have registered bank accounts, please refer to 1 and 2 below.

Fund for Living Expenses Application Q & A

1. If you agree with the Fund being transferred to your bank account used for your university tuition payments, the fund is transferred to the account.
2. If you disagree with the Fund being transferred to your bank account used for your university tuition payments, you need to report your account to Gifu University for registration. In this case, because we need to go through registration procedures, it will take a few weeks before the payment is made.
